

Left—FRED MORRIS DEARING, our new Assistant Secretary of State, who has come up from the bottom in the foreign service by virtue of character and preparation. Mr. Dearing has seen diplomatic service in Havana, Peking, London, Mexico City, Brussels, Madrid and Petrograd.

Right—YALE'S NEW PRESIDENT, Dr. James Rowland Angell, from his latest studio portrait. Fifty-two years old, psychologist, scientist of international reputation, for years dean of the University of Chicago, head of the Carnegie Corporation and now "Presy" at New Haven.

EASTER SUNDAY

"God sent his singers upon earth with songs of sadness and of mirth, That they might touch the hearts of men and bring them back to heaven again."

LONGFELLOW.

Bachrach

THE FIRST GERMAN MINISTER TO SAY "NO" TO THE ALLIES. Dr. Simons, German Foreign Minister (seated) and Herr Stahmer, German Ambassador to Great Britain, photographed in London during the recent Reparations Conference.

International

Left—A BRONZE MEMORIAL to the late Jacob H. Schiff, banker and philanthropist, unveiled recently in the auditorium of the Uptown Talmud Torah. Mr. Schiff was for years a member and director of this institution.

Keystone

Right—LADY GEDDES, wife of the British Ambassador to the United States and the mother of five children, in action on the tennis courts of the Columbia Country Club just outside of Washington.

Keystone

Left—A WHATISIT. Not the head of a Russian Red emerging from a Siberian snowdrift, but a $700 prize black silk Peruvian cavy—a blue-blooded world's champion owned and exhibited by Dr. J. A. Roberts of Hollywood, Cal. What is a cavy? Why stupid that's the highbrow name of our old friend the guinea pig. you can have as many guesses as you like as to where the hairy critter's head is.

Underwood

THE PRESIDENT OBSERVES PALM SUNDAY by visiting the nation's disabled war heroes at the Walter Reed Hospital. The President, who was accompanied by Mrs. Harding and his personal physician, Brigadier General Sawyer, is shown shaking hands with Lieutenant Fletcher, a brave Yank who lost both legs in action overseas.

Underwood

Left—MISS PEARL HARDING, the thirteen-year-old daughter of S. E. Harding, of Chicago, a distant relative of President Harding, who has been asked by the President and Mrs. Harding to make her home with them at the White House.

International

